MATTHEW KENT
Interim Vice President for Finance and Treasurer

Matthew Kent joined Princeton University in 1981 as a Budget Analyst in the Controller’s Office. Throughout his career, he has managed many different financial functions at the University as well as participating in numerous systems implementations and upgrades. Matt was promoted to the position of Associate Treasurer in the Office of Finance & Treasury in 2006. Among his recent responsibilities within Finance & Treasury he has overseen endowment and gift accounting, liquidity management and short-term investments, banking relationships, the capital budget, University loans and, through his work on the capital planning process, the management of the University’s debt program.

Throughout his career at Princeton Matt has participated in many aspects of University life serving on numerous committees and panels. In addition, he has also attended and served as a presenter at regional and national conferences and has been a board member of the Tuition Plan Consortium in support of higher education and its mission.

“I am honored to have been asked by President Eisgruber to take on the role of Interim VP and I look forward to leading the Office of Finance and Treasury and its dedicated staff in the delivery of financial stewardship, analysis, and operations in support of the University’s teaching and research mission. We will continue to work collaboratively with our campus partners for the advancement of the University.”

Matt’s appointment as the Interim Vice President for Finance and Treasurer is effective as of October 1, 2018.
University Travel Showcase

November 2, 2018
10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.
Frick Atrium

Join us on an adventure through our new and improved travel program! Meet representatives from World Travel as well as more than 40 of our airline, hotel, and transportation suppliers. Learn more about the travel program and how it can support you, including:

- What World Travel can do for you
- How to get support for your group travel needs
- How to take advantage of enhanced savings from our preferred travel suppliers
- What additional travel services are available to you

Please join us on Friday, November 2, 2018, at Frick Atrium from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. to learn about these topics, and more!

We welcome all those who travel, or manage travel on behalf of others, to join us for this showcase and to learn more about the benefits of the university travel program. For additional information, and to learn more about the program, please visit: https://travel.princeton.edu/faculty-staff/2018-travel-showcase

LARS NEVERDAL

POSITION: In the role of Assistant Treasurer for Cash and Investment Services, Lars’ primary responsibility includes overseeing activities related to the University’s cash and working capital investments. He and his team review forecasting for future cash and liquidity needs, and support and manage activities related to PRINCO’s day-to-day cash and banking operations.

Prior to coming to Princeton’s Office of Finance and Treasury, Lars spent his career in the treasury and financial market space, in varying industries. His previous experience has been globally focused, spending many years working and living in Asia and Europe before coming to the U.S.

WHEN NOT AT WORK: Lars enjoys spending time with his family, particularly at Baker Rink, and other area hockey rinks, watching both of his children play for the Princeton Youth Hockey Association.